

The Exam Is Not Tuesday

Exam Information

The final will be given Wednesday morning from 7-10 (extra hour) on June 14. Old finals are on my door.

There are two rules about the solution book. (1) It doesn't leave the building. (2) If you take it away from the office area to some other place in the building, check it out from the office on the solution book sign-out sheet and write on the sheet where in the building you and the book will be.
